Pitiable Showing of G. O. P. Gives Leaders Time to Think of Legislature,

TO LEGALIZE PRIMARIES

Next State Legislature Will Probably Improve Present Primary System.

(Special to The Times-Disnatch.)

LOVINGSTON, VA., October 16.—
Following the most abject and pitiable faildown ever made by the Republican party in Virginia, in the midst of a widely heraided State campaign. Democratic leaders in this section, relieved of the usual burden of making a heavy canvass for their ticket, are already beginning to look beyond the ides of November, and to figure on some of the more important matters which may come before the Legislature next winter, affecting the welfare of the people of the old Commonwealth.

Time was, and it has not been so many years ago, when in State campaigns, local meetings, addressed by strong speakers, were held at nearly all the prominent precincts in this por-(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Delegation in Line.

The Senator and Delegates from this district are heartily in favor of legislative action with reference to primary elections, and will so vote and work at the coming session.

Senator Strode, who offered a bill at the last session, similar to the one recently suggested by Speaker Byrd, had this to say in replying to the general inquiry on the subject, sent out some weeks ago by The Times-Dispatch to Senators and nominees for the House:

"I am heartily in favor of the proposed plan to legalize the primary, as outlined by Speaker Byrd in a recent interview. Indeed as I gather from this interview, Mr. Byrd's suggestions are in line with Senate bill 57, which I introduced and urged at the last session of the General Assembly, but which falled of passage."

This almost certainly means that Senator Strode and the Speaker, who are warm friends and leaders in their fown homes naturally want every safe guard and protection. In cities or suburbs electricity is immeasurably safer than city gas, provided you have your house wired properly. This work should be done by the W B. Cellett of the ranking member, and is in thorough safer than city gas, provided you have your house wired properly. This work should be done by the W B. The committee of the man and the propers of the selections of the safe propers. The second with the selection of the safe propers. The second with the selection of the safe propers. The second which is s

James M. Lewis, of Essex county, is the ranking member, and is in thor-ough sympathy with the move now on foot to legalize primary elections in the State. On this subject, in a re-cent interview, Mr. Lewis said:

"In my opinion, unless the primary is legalized and conducted at public expense for the two dominant parties, it will be the means of the downfall of Democracy in our State, With these additions to the present system, it will be worth the further trial."

Of course it is not known that Mr. Lewis will be placed at the head of the new Committee on Elections of the new Committee on Elections of the House, though his appointment by the Speaker would be in keeping with a custom which is seldom broken, to promote the member who ranks next to the retiring chairman.

In any view of the case, however, it mary measure will be adopted during the session of the General Assembly which will convene in Richmond next January. C. A. EOYCE.
